

Penny Fenning is a teacher, a writer, a producer, and a performer. The native of Kansas City and transplant to Albany has diverse interests that range from hiking to screenwriting. Ms. Fenning has a BA in Theater from the University of Missouri at Kansas City and a Master of Education with a specialty in English from the Jesuit university, Rockhurst University in Kansas City. She is a founding member of a not-for-profit puppet museum in Independence Missouri, The Puppetry Arts Institute. She is a member of the Greater Kansas City Writing Project. The GKCWP works to advance writing and the teaching of writing. Along with teaching at Olathe South High School as a Highly Qualified English teacher, Ms. Fenning won a Teacher Summer Externship at Kansas University's Department of Healthcare Informatics. Fenning has also collaborated and directed two Freshmen productions at Olathe South and assisted with Debate tournaments as well as administering the ACT (American College Testing).

